When I was contacted by Eyeka to create a Holiday greeting for all members I felt so touched and honored. Eyeka has always been a place for me to return to and make something new and adventurous. Always new possibilities to learn and develop, new challenges to take, and most importantly: appreciation for my work. Upon all this, the guys at Eyeka are one of the nicest I've ever had the chance to work with, just like a friendly happy family. So now, as a return to all the kindness I'd like to wish a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of you, Eyeka members! 😊

“Do not try to decipher what your unique destiny is! To exist is a duty, even if it lasts a minute “(Goethe, Faust, vv. 9417-9418). It is an invitation to live intensely every moment, not afford to look mediocre one moment of our existence: the Horatian carpe diem at the nth degree. We often forget about this.

I've been thinking about making an advertisement since a long period of time and finally it happened due eYeka. The win in my very first contest made me more confident. It is great that eYeka gives opportunities to everyone. I wish you all creative luck!

I wish everyone that the feeling of harmony and fraternity, typical of this time of the year, be extended to all over the year of 2013. Carlos.

I use hand and tree as the main elements in this Christmas card, the tree is like our hand, we use it to create so many beautiful ideas (leaves), so don't lose it.

I want to express this idea through this Christmas card. Wish all of you merry Christmas and happy New Year!
